

Michael Feisor

Associate

mfeisor@weinstocklaw.com

Michael Feisor works closely with our clients to develop comprehensive estate and wealth transfer plans that address our clients' unique family dynamics and financial circumstances. With an LL.M. in Taxation, Michael is particularly adept at advising clients on real property, individual, corporate and partnership tax issues. Clients appreciate Michael's patience, responsiveness and his ability to break down technical issues into everyday language.

Michael's advanced knowledge and understanding of business transactions and tax matters allows him to suggest creative and effective solutions for complex estate planning issues. While in law school, Michael interned for the Internal Revenue Service and served as a Note and Comment Editor for the Loyola Law Review.
